ABSTRACT

Noting that specialized educational programs for teen parents should address the teen parents' needs for knowledge about self-development, pregnancy, parenting, and economic independence as well as problem solving and interpersonal skills, this series of guides for school-age parents and the parent educators working with such teens provides a resource written with these needs in mind. The five teen guides in the series are: (1) "Your Pregnancy and Newborn Journey"; (2) "Your Baby's First Year"; (3) "The Challenge of Toddlers"; (4) "Discipline from Birth to Three"; and (5) "Teen Dads: Rights, Responsibilities and Joys." Each of the guides has an accompanying workbook. The series teacher's guide includes workbook responses, quizzes, and answer key for the first four teen guides; the "Teen Dads" teacher's guide is self-contained. The series curriculum guide provides guidelines for developing a teaching plan for teen parents, and includes activities and projects, writing assignments, objectives, and other resources corresponding to each chapter of each of the guides.
